Also, it is a great way to give back to an activity/hobby that brings history, art, beauty, value and pleasure into your life!

OTHER NUMISMATIC NEWS:

OBITUARY: GEROME WALTON

Gerome passed away August 7, 2021 following a heart attack. George M, Milt N, and Dan U represented the society and coin club at his celebration of life service on August 13. When the Society was incorporated, as mentioned above, Gerome was the Treasurer. He also served as an Assistant-Treasurer to the ANA for decades. We will miss not only the results of his research on Nebraska Notes and related history, but also his wit and wisdom. His numismatic writing earned him mutiple awards over the years. Unfortunately, Gerome did not live to receive the most recent. On August 12 during the Member and Awards Celebration at the Chicago World's Fair of Money he was to receive Second Place in the Catherine Sheehan Literary Award for U.S. Paper Money Studies, for his August 2020 article "The Women Behind Nebraska Notes."
