The secretary's report as written in the April newsletter was presented and accepted. Treasurer, Barbara T.'s report was presented and accepted.

April Business

membership to submit articles about "coin collecting"

for PR advertising in the Gazette newspaper as we did last year. They should be articles telling of your interests and/or events pertaining to you, coin collecting and/or our club.

Also announced, our July show contract with the Expo Center has been signed.

A check from the show committee for last year was presented to the club.

Frank T. told of a radio advertising session that club members will be having with Richard Randell of KVOR radio (740) in June.

George M. told of a fourth award to be presented for the July Show Exhibits.

The CWNA newsletter with the CWNA Scholarship application and Inter-Club Scholarship application was shown to the membership.

Members were asked to help with Show set-up on Wednesday and Thursday before the show.

Collectors Corner
