NATIONAL MONEY SHOW COMING UP!!!

The National Money Show at the Broadmoor is just around the corner. We've recruited a bunch of volunteers from around the state. Thanks to everyone who has volunteered! The show runs from the 10th through the 12th of March. Depending on what you have volunteered for, you may be asked to be present on the 9th, which is dealer and exhibitor setup day.

Volunteers can get their parking reimbursed! Bring your parking receipts to Steve D., who will be spending most of the show at the Collectors Exhibit area.

Finally, I know of at least three members who were intending to set up exhibits. Good luck to all. Those judges are tough. (I ought to know!)

NATIONAL MONEY SHOW CONVENTION SEMINARS*ANA ANNOUNCEMENT

Collectors can enhance their skills in counterfeit detection and coin grading during the annual National Money Show®, March 10-12, in Colorado Springs, Colo. The ANA is offering two seminars: “Counterfeit Detection of U.S. Coins with Emphasis on Chinese-Made Fakes” and “Fundamentals of Grading.”

“Counterfeit Detection of U.S. Coins with Emphasis on Chinese-Made Fakes” is a two-day class that will debut one of the largest collections of Chinese-made counterfeits of United States colonials, coins, tokens, bullion and bars. Hundreds of never before seen, recently made examples will be available to examine along with the ANA’s Counterfeit Detection set of older and highly deceptive fakes.

This seminar will teach counterfeit detection of key date and mintmarked coins, U.S. gold coins, and the latest wave of deceptive Chinese-made counterfeits. Both digital presentation and extensive hands-on coin examination will be covered.

Instructor Brian Silliman is leading this course, March 8-9, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. at The Broadmoor, 1 Lake Ave., in Colorado Springs. The cost is $250 for ANA members and $350 for non-members.

The two-day course “Fundamentals of Grading,” will explore the history and philosophy of grading, and teach how to grade copper, nickel, silver and gold U.S. coins according to the latest ANA and market standards. Instruction will consist of a slide presentation and plenty of hands-on opportunities to view and grade the ANA Grading Set in individual and group settings.

ANA Education Director Rod Gillis is instructing this course with special guest Ken Bressett, March 11-12, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at The Broadmoor, 1 Lake Ave., in Colorado Springs. The cost is $250 for ANA members and $350 for non-members.
