Our Joint Coin Show

This has been quite a week for Colorado Springs residents as you would have expected. In one way or another, the terrible fires and the smoke have affected all of us. Earlier last week, we were in doubt about having a coin show at all. Fortunately, Thursday, everything began looking better, when we could continue planning our coin show.

The show committee would like to acknowledge the set up crew that were distributing coin cases, laying out electrical cords and hauling boxes of show equipment into the dealer's layout area. Also to the club members that spent a lot more than two hours helping with the guests and the registration table.

The attendance to the event was lower than usual, almost 700, but most of the dealers were happy with those that did attend.

The show's eight exhibits went well with Terry C. winning the Adult division with his "Large Lucky Souvenir Coins of Colorado", Erik E. a visiting YN, winning the YN award and the People's Choice with "A Sampling of Varied Varieties".
