A General View of our 2016 Coin Show

Set-up and take-down of our annual show went very well with volunteer members of both the Society and the Coin Club doing a fast and efficient operation.

The Thursday opening with dealer set-up and registration made it a long four days for the volunteer helpers receiving Dealers, Early Birds and ANA seminar attendees. Thank you to those hard working volunteers for doing a great job.

The show registration of the four days went over one thousand with guests and the seminar attendees. Show security again did a very good job with controlling the floor.

The show volunteers registration table, the show door prizes, coins for YN's and YN's giveaway table went very well as did the exhibits.

Thanks to the nine members that entered fine numismatic exhibits for this annual show.

ANA's Web Space Page

Our website can be viewed at (csns.anaclubs.org) or (cscs.anaclubs.org). We do need help with this, asking the membership for any ideas for adding information, articles, and art work to the site. Our monthly newsletters and club information may also be viewed on the website.

June Exhibit Talks were given by three members

- 1.) Terry C. ("Gateway to Colorado") Julesburg, Colorado's 100th anniversary medal. The history of town and city transformations including violence, "Wickedest City in the West" with Indian fights, horse thieves, cattle barons and having a Pony Express National Historic Trail with a prominent stagecoach station and site of Fort Rankin (later Fort Sedgwick).
- 2.) Milt N. (Souvenir Cards) The Bureau of Engraving and Printing started producing its own souvenir cards both for the stamp and coin fields in 1969. They started as invitations to events and first day covers. Milt displayed our Societies 1980's-1990's cards telling history of Colorado's railroads with a variety of colors.
- 3.) Dan U. (Civil War Currency) Civil War tokens were privately minted and distributed in the U. S. between 1861 and 1864. The widespread use of the tokens was a result of the scarcity of government-issued cents during the Civil War. They are divided into three types—store cards, patriotic tokens, and sutler tokens. The collectible value of the tokens is determined chiefly by their rarity.

June Winning Exhibit Talk was won by Terry C.
