THE ZOOM ROOM

"Zoom zoom" as the young man in the Mazda commercial used to say. All you need join in the fun is a phone, notepad or computer of any sort. There are three ways you could zoom online:

1) You can choose from the list of phone numbers if your choice is to call in. Enter the meeting id followed by the # sign when requested. The password followed by the # sign may be requested.

2) From your phone you can load the zoom app from the app store on your phone for free. Then just follow the instructions after you click on the zoom link.

3) With the laptop, pc or notepad, just click on the zoom link from the email you received. The first time, zoom will help you along.

Once you enter the zoom room, open with computer audio. And then you can join with the video button on the bottom left of the screen. You will notice there is a mute option to the right of the video option to open for commenting or to present an exhibit. There is also an option to share your screen which you would use to present an exhibit. When you click on the chat option, a window opens to the right and you can enter comments in the bottom for everyone or a specific person. When you click on participants, you can raise your hand. There is also a clap option. On the upper right, there is a gallery option where you will see everyone in the meeting all at once. If I made this seem difficult, it's not and we're all here to assist you.

Thank you,
Georgia

REMINISCING

As we move into another month of the pandemic, I'd like to forward a very pleasurable visit that my family and I had last week regarding our city and its cultural history.

The Colorado Springs Pioneers Museum

The granite building with a domed clock tower was the El Paso County Courthouse building from 1903 to 1973 and has free admission.

There are wonderful regional history & rotating exhibits, from art of Native American culture and early Pikes Peak region individuals.

There are no specific numismatic displays but many exhibits with relationships to numismatics including the William C. Henderson dedication room.

Very well maintained and staffed with cordial and helpful people.

George M., President
